MANDATORY INSURANCE REQUIREMENTS FOR J-1 & J-2 VISA HOLDERS

The U.S. code of Federal Regulations governing Exchange Visitor Programs (22CFR514.14) require that the exchange visitor obtain health, accident, medical evacuation and repatriation of remains insurance. The insurance policies must cover the exchange visitor and all accompanying dependents. The insurance must provide the following coverage:

- Medical benefits of at least $50,000 per accident or illness
- Repatriation of remains in the amount of $7,500
- Expenses associated with medical evacuation of the exchange visitor to his or her home country in the amount of $10,000
- A deductible not to exceed $500 per accident or illness

The insurance policy must be underwritten by an insurance corporation having an A.M. Best rating of "A-" or above, an Insurance Solvency International, Ltd. (ISI) rating "A-" or above, a Standard & Poor's Claims-paying Ability of "A-" or above, a Weiss Research, Inc. rating of "B+" or above, or such other rating services as the Agency may from time to time specify. Insurance coverage backed by the full faith and credit of the government of the exchange visitor's home country shall be deemed to meet this requirement.

Any exchange visitor who willfully refuses to comply with this requirement shall be considered to be in violation of his/her exchange visitor status. The program sponsor is obligated to inform the Department of State of exchange visitor's non-compliance.

"I certify that I have read and understand the information above concerning the Department of State's requirement for exchange visitors to have insurance. I am in compliance and have obtained the appropriate insurance coverage as indicated above."

UCI COVERAGE

My insurance is covered by UC Benefits for the duration of my J-1 program. I understand that UC Benefits does not meet the repatriation and medical evacuation insurance requirement. I will purchase Repatriation & Medical Evacuation insurance through Saylor and Hill Co. for the duration of my J-1 program. (Enrollment form available at the International Center)
